Part 2 Important Notes

The information that you have provided to us forms the basis of your insurance policy. It is important that you advise us of all material information, and immediately of any change in the information. Please note if you are in any doubt whether or not any information is material, it should be disclosed. Under the Road Traffic Act, it is an offence to make any false statements or withhold any material information in order to obtain a cover note or a Certificate of Motor Insurance.

The Insurer reserves the right to decline any risk or to change the premium and terms quoted.

Full details of our complaints procedure are set out in your insurance policy.

Your policy is subject to English law and to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts, unless we have agreed otherwise with you.

Please note your cover does not start until you have been issued with a cover note or Certificate of Insurance.

Data Protection Act 1998

We may store your information on a computer and use it for administration, risk assessment, research and statistical purposes, marketing purposes and for crime prevention (see further details below). We will only disclose your details to third parties, if it is necessary for the performance of your contract with us.

We will keep your information secure at all times. In certain circumstances, for example for systems administration purposes, we may have to transfer your information to another country, which may be a country outside the European Economic Area ("EEA"). By proceeding with your insurance application, we will assume you are agreeable for us to transfer your information to a country outside the EEA.

We may need to process sensitive data of persons in your employ or of whom you wish to be indemnified by this Insurance. Sensitive data includes such information as physical or mental health, or criminal convictions (if applicable). By proceeding with this application you are considered to be giving your consent to such information being processed by the Insurer and its agents.

Claims and Underwriting Exchange Register

Insurers pass information to the Claims and Underwriting Exchange Register run by the Insurance Database Services Ltd, and the Motor Insurance Anti-Fraud and Theft Register run by the Association of British Insurers. The aim is to help us check information provided, and also to prevent fraudulent claims. When we deal with your request for insurance we may search these registers. Under the conditions of your insurance policy, you must tell us about any incident (such as an accident or theft) whether or not it gives rise to a claim. When you tell us about an incident, we will pass information relating to it to the registers

Motor Insurance Database

Your policy details will be added to the Motor Insurance Database (MID), run by the Motor Insurers' Information Centre (MIIC). MID data may be used by the DVLA and DVLANI for the purpose of Electronic Vehicle Licencing and by the Police for the purpose of establishing whether a driver's use of a vehicle is likely to be covered by a motor insurance policy and/or for preventing or detecting a crime. If you are involved in an accident (in the UK or abroad) other UK insurers, the Motor Insurers' Bureau and MIIC may search the MID to obtain relevant policy information.

Persons pursuing a claim in respect of a road traffic accident (including citizens of other countries) may also obtain relevant information which is held on the MID.

You can find out more about this from us or on-line at www.miiic.org.uk

Part 3 Declaration

Once you have read and understood the Important Notes in Part 2 above, please read and sign the Declaration below.

I/We declare that the details given above are true to the best of my/our knowledge and belief and that no information has been withheld by me/us that might influence the Insurers acceptance and assessment of this Insurance and, to accept a policy subject to its terms, conditions and exceptions.
